COLLATERAL CONTACT:

At 5:42am, CPSS II spoke with a hospital staff who informed that the police are still at the Ped ER with the subject child and then handed over the telephone to PO Rourke of the PSA # 6.

According to PO Rourke, the police from their PSA responded to a 911 call at about 2:30 am this morning from a female who loose from this family's apartment. When the police got to the apartment, they found a woman handcuffed to a radiator in a provocative cloth in the apartment. The child was also found sleeping in the apartment but the parents run away. According to PO Rourke, the woman does not know the where about of the parent and the parents will be arrested if found.

She informed that the child, F. has been medical/physically cleared and they are about to leave the hospital with the child. CPSS II advise PO Rourke to transport the child to the Children's Center since there are no identified resource person for the child. She was reminded to bring in the discharge document for the placement.

The source said that the 911 call came in around 1:30 am and the source said that he gained access to the building around 3:30 am with the assistance of the NYPD SWAT team due to the persons inside being unresponsive. The source reported that once inside he found unknown/ unrelated persons Erik Kirkland and Sarah Hau Sans with child F B i. The source said that after interviewing the participants of the home the child was left with homeless strangers who have only known the mother Ms. Jasmine Bridgeforth and father Mr. Delano Broadus for time of less than two months. The source said that while interviewing the participants the father Mr. Broadus called Mr. Kirkland at which time the source told Mr. Broadus to come home with Ms. Bridgeforth so they can be interviewed. The source said that once all participants were interviewed the victim Nicola positively identified Ms. Bridgeforth and Mr. Broadus, along with various others to have participated in assaulting and chaining her to the radiator. The source said that the apartment has locks and chains on all of the windows and doors and gates throughout the apartment. The source explained that the victim stated the child was present in the same room as the victim while she was being assaulted. The source reported that the victim disclosed the persons in the home including Delano and Jasmine engaged in drinking alcohol and smoking marijuana in the home earlier in the night. The source added the victim reported she was trying to leave the apartment when she was held at knife point and was chained to the radiator and stripped of her cloths. The source said the victim disclosed that Mr. Delano took pictures of her and that Mr. Delano said he would kill her if she did not get a high number of views on the Internet. The source also stated that the victim reported that Delano and Jasmine physically assaulted her causing visible bruising to her face. The source explained that Ms. Bridgeforth and Mr. Broadus will be charged with assault 3 and reckless endangerment of a child. The source said it was not reported that any sexual actions were committed to anyone in the home. The source disclosed that the Human Trafficking department is searching the Internet for more information to address the presenting concerns.

The source reported that there was no immediate noticeable trauma to child F B i, but that F B i was taken to St. Lukes for an evaluation. The source said that child faith was sleeping when the source entered the apartment. The source said that once Delano and Jasmine came back to the apartment together neither of them asked for or acknowledged that they had a child. The source after interviewing everyone asked if anyone is related to the child who was found in the apartment at which time Jasmine and Delano said yes that is my child. The source stated that Jasmine and Delano did not ask any more questions regarding their child.
